

SEPTEMBER is ADVENTURE

NATURE ARTISTS

Draw what you see when you are out of the house, draw each-other, draw your pets, the sun-rise or sun-set, get creative with all that is around you!

PARK HOPPING

Get a map of the neighborhood. Circle parks in walking or cycling distance. Do a park challenge in every park. Think of; slide 4x, monkey bar 3x, swing and jump 2x.

STAR GAZING

When it turns dark go to a park without direct street lights, to watch the stars. Use a phone/tablet with a (free) sky view app and find extraterrestrial adventures tonight!

BEAR PICNIC

Gather your favorite bear, doll or toy and prepare a picnic for the whole family. Go somewhere you usually don't go, look at the map and try to discover a park you haven't been yet.

GEOCACHING

Get the (free) app on your phone and find amazing little treasures! Bring some funny bits and pieces with you to place in a treasure you find

PIRATE TREASURE

Prepare a pirate treasure, hide it at night. Make a treasure- map, and use red paint as a 'blood' trail... going from the map to the treasure. In the morning the story will tell itself

CAMP FIRE

Let the kids help build and light the fire. No outdoor/fire pit? Inside is as much as fun! Light as many candles as you have on a tray and turn other lights of. A real campfire in your house!

EYE SPY

Prepare a local eye spy while out with a friend. Make random pictures of funny, typical things, like a letterbox, street sign, front door, tree, shop sign etc. Print in random order. Let the kids find them.

MAKE A MOVIE

Make your own movie, write a plot, think of different scenes and give every member of the family a task. Outside is the best light! Take advantage of that.

SCAVENGER HUNT

Keep some egg cartons and use them to gather nature, flowers, leaves, nuts etc etc. Sort them on color or on size, shape or any other way you want

HUT BUILDING

Build a tent in the living-room or garden or use the trampoline and sleep under the stars, sleep in it, together with the kids, they'll love it, remember it, treasure it. Read a spooky story, cuddle and giggle.
